

THE DAILY REDSHIRT

Still free, still awesome!

THANK YOU!!

SOME MESSAGES FROM THE REDSHIRTS...

[to our fellow pilgrims, as we head home!]

"I just love seeing everyone every day and giving hugs to everyone. Thank you."

(Jess Standing, Cranleigh)

"Thank you to the main pilgrimage who have worked so hard to take everybody on board."

(Silas de Burgh, Duncton)

"Seeing you all on the Red Carpet and waving to you all, while you were smiling and being enthusiastic made my day."

(Mary Harrison, Guildford)

"It was amazing talking to the pilgrims. They have been really interesting and always had time for us. The atmosphere was always fantastic."

(Anna O'Brien, East Grinstead)

"I loved seeing all of the pilgrims smiles each day. Their warmth and their jokes were great too. Matthew Appleton deserves a special mention. All of the Redshirts love Matthew."

(Jess Standing, Cranleigh)

"It was a really good atmosphere being around the main pilgrimage. It gave the Redshirts a chance to bond with people of different ages and backgrounds. It was interesting and enjoyable."

(Henry Nicholls, Hustrpierpoint)

"My highlight of the week has been the fact that it feels like a big family."

(Kirsty Milne, Chobham)

"It's even better the second time around. Thank you so much for all your acceptance and support."

(Sophie O'Shea, Horsham)

"It's been such a great experience meeting new people."

(Ellie Baxter-Smith, Haywards-Heath)

"It was very fun and spiritually uplifting. Especially the candlebank. It was great to be a part of."

(Clive Swithinbank, Dorking)

"I had a great time and I'm so glad I came back."

(Peter Bergin, Cranleigh)

"I went into the Accueil the first day and I came across one of the pilgrims unpacking in her room. She told us how much she admired the Redshirts and asked us to keep it up because we don't realise how much we are appreciated. Thank you to everyone."

(Bridie Cummings, Horsham)

"The pilgrimage was an absolutely spectacular time. I hope to come back next year, In fact, I certainly will. I will miss all of you."

(Josh Biggs, Worthing)

"It was a great privilege to be involved in this experience. I will miss everybody a lot and I hope to be coming back next year."

(Jennie Crick, Lindfield)

"We feel really lucky to be involved in something like this. It's amazing to work with these young people and with the wider pilgrimage too. Thank you all so much for the experience and for the memories!"
